Dear Friend,

You've seen the news, heard it from friends, read the reports: eBay is a billion-dollar business, and everyone else is profiting from the online auction explosion – except for you. However, you have no idea how, or where to start so that you don't get scammed, stolen from or stepped on. It's a bit scary to jump into the eBay auction waters unaware, not knowing where to look and how to find exactly what you are looking for. Sure, you could try and navigate the choppy waters yourself, but how many hard lessons will you have to learn first?

I've been exactly where you've been. When I first started off with eBay, I had no idea what I was doing. I now know that with the right information, some time and energy and a bit of direction from an expert, that even a complete moron could transform a potentially difficult eBay purchasing experience into a profitable pastime or money-saving endeavor.

But do you know who to ask, and where to go to get this information?
