

Can I Really Download Free Rap Beats?

The answer is yes! Both rappers and producers have immediate access to the current free rap beat on our system as soon as they register with Beat League. Plus, whenever we have a new hip hop instrumental or rap beat available, our members receive an email with a link to download the new, free beat at their convenience.

What's the catch? Are your rap beats and hip hop instrumentals really free?

Once you register [link] with Beat League, you can use the beats and instrumentals that you download on your demo CD or for personal use. Personal use is considered to be the distribution of less than 500 copies. Some terms of use may differ from beat to beat; If this is the case, it will be posted next to the download for your information. All CD's should list Beat League and <http://www.beatleague.com/> as the source for the beats and instrumentals used. Please note that the distribution or sale of any hip hop beats or rap instrumentals posted at Beat League without your own lyrics attached is not allowed. Preview Beat League now and register to receive your first rap beat here [link].

Where Does Beat League Get These Free Rap Beats?

Our samples come from a variety of sources. You'll receive some beats produced by the staff here at Beat League, originally created for a beat CD entitled "Fresh Produce", valued at more than $50 for just a few tracks. You'll be getting instrumentals from this CD for free! Other samples come from producers located all over the world who have uploaded [link] their hip hop instrumentals and rap beats specifically for your use. New producers are uploading their beats and instrumentals constantly, with the hopes of becoming a featured producer [link] at Beat League. All you need to do is register with us now [link] to gain access.

Producers Can Upload Beats? Become Featured?

Yes! Producers can visit our Upload Page in order to upload beats. If we pick you to be a Featured Producer on Beat League, your rap beat will be offered to our subscribers to download for free. After we move on to a new beat, your information will remain on our Featured Producers page along with a sample of the beat that was used. This will allow interested subscribers to visit your site, or send you an email to get more of your hip hop instrumentals at any time. You'll get great long-term exposure for your instrumentals.
